

The Knowledge Exchange: A Partnership-in-Action Podcast

PODCAST LAUNCH!

The Knowledge Exchange: A Partnership-in-Action Podcast highlights inspiring community-engaged partnerships. Each episode will feature a discussion between UBC School of Social Work faculty and their community partners about their projects together and the impact emerging from their knowledge exchange and mobilization practices.

OUR AIMS

To highlight the successes, lessons learned, and research impacts of community-based research in the School of Social Work at UBC

To further understand knowledge exchange and mobilization and community engagement and its practice in Social Work

Tune in for insightful conversations on Apple Podcasts and Spotify and stay connected on the go.
