

PERSPECTIVES BIBLIOGRAPHY 2021

WINTER 2021

vol. 43 no. 1

ANTI-OPPRESSIVE AND ANTI-PRIVILEGE SOCIAL WORK IN TIMES OF PANDEMIC MAJOR ARTICLES

- Anti-Oppressive and Anti-Privilege (AOAP) Social Work in Times of Pandemic
- Anti-Racist Social Work Practice
- Through a Social Worker Lens: Reflecting as a Newcomer Client
- The BC Gender Equality Report Card 2019/2020: Working with Community to Hold Government to Account
- From Research to Practice: Health Social Work in Canada
- Learning Professionals: The Education and Care of Social Workers

SPRING/SUMMER 2021

vol. 43 no. 2

EXPLORING COUNSELLING THROUGH A SOUTH ASIAN LENS MAJOR ARTICLES

- Exploring Counselling Through a South Asian Lens
- Acknowledging and Modifying Defence Mechanisms: A Valuable Therapy “Trick”
- Reflections on Pandemic from BC Ministers
- Weathering the Storm: Reflections on Homeless Supports in a Pandemic
- Reflections on Personal Growth During Field Placement
- From Research to Practice: Social Work and the Future in a Post-COVID-19 World
- Bookshelf: Everyday Violence in the Lives of Youth: Speaking Out and Pushing Back

AUTUMN 2021

vol. 43 no. 3

A PARADIGM SHIFT IN SENIOR CARE IN BC- A RADICAL NEW APPROACH MAJOR ARTICLES

- A Paradigm Shift in Senior Care in BC: A Radical New Approach
- Hearing Aids: A Field Guide for Helpers
- Never Forced to Leave Home: Culturally Safe Social Work Practice
- Social Work Field Education in Canada: Learnings from Three National Studies
- Remote Field Placements: Lessons Learned at the UBC School of Social Work
- From Research to Practice: Core Leadership Practices in Social Work
- BCASW and Friends Diversity Quilt Wall Hanging: United by Diversity, Strengthened by Inclusion

